Waiter Hanley of Providence caused the downfall of four favorites when he carried off four blues with horses that were considered to be inferior to their opponents. The first upset was when he rode his bay gelding Twilight to victory in the saddle class. A few minutes later he caused a stir by sending Mrs. Hanley out on Twilight in the class for women's saddle horses. Mrs. Hanley handled the gelding as well as her husband and scored a blue.

Later Mr. Hanley won with Brother Jed in the class for runabouts and he carried off more honors in the class for theroughbred hunters with his gelding Landsdowne.

Miss Jean Sana Regan's Carlton Quality, which was beaten yesterday by James Cox Brady's Lady, came into her own to-day. She earned a blue in the class for ponies 13:2 to 14 hands high. She was protested on the grounds that sne was too big, but when measured the standard tipped exactly 13:2.
